Prayer & Care, cont'd.

Births

Renee Nicole was born to Ted and Diana Savage on January 11.

ents are experiencing the love of God through volunteers. Pray that even in this environment the Lord will be lifted up and that some will join the Family.

Deaths

Rose Maples, mother of Angie (Ken) Calvelage, passed away on January 12.

Are you engaging missionally and want prayer? Have questions about our missionaries or want to get in touch with them? Please email Joe Johns at jjohns@fmcfw.org.

Alan Chapel, brother of Bill (Lori) Chapel, passed away on January 12.

Feel free to contact the church at 447.3578 or lharmon@fmcfw.org to update or add a prayer request.

Missional Prayer

TOMMY & KONNI LOGAN: (Papua New Guinea) Tomas and Pastor Nope are working with the Logans on the many checks that must be done on the translation of the New Testament before it is ready to be printed. Ask God to give them clarity and wisdom so that the final translation will be accurate and all glory will go to God.

NEXT STEP STORMS: Alabama relief efforts continue as Fellowship prepares for another trip in March to help to restore homes and lives of tornado victims. Ask God to draw those He wants involved.

BRUCE & DAWN CLUCKIE: (Guinea) We thank God for His grace to Adam (age 11) whose headaches have ceased. No cause was determined, but they are gone. Thanks for praying.

UPWARDS: (Local) The season is in full swing and children and their par-
