ing to Baccalaureate because a Hindu student asked to read a poem and Chaplain Jans and I determined it didn't fit in the Christian service. The blame is being laid squarely at my feet. I have been accused of destroying all that the former Club Beyond Community Director accomplished, not being a patriot, and hating and dividing students. Choose any or all of these to pray for. I need great wisdom."

Missional Prayer

BRUCE AND DAWN CLUCKIE:

(Currently home) Please pray for Ali, a Yalunka believer, whose wife was taken from him by her family because of his faith in Christ. Ali talked to the family who has returned his wife and also given Ali permission to teach her about Christ. Pray there will be no more tension in the family and that they will all embrace Ali's faith.

PAM FULTON: (Italy) shares: "This past week major turmoil bubbled to the surface and exploded in regard to Baccalaureate. There was confusion over the terms ecumenical and non-denominational. The result is many and maybe all of the graduating seniors are backing out of com-
