Missional Prayer

MARK AND CARLA HANSON:

(Spain) The town councilwoman they have been working with in making plans for English camp has been replaced after an election. It shouldn't affect them this year but pray the camp will be so successful that it won't be a problem in the future. Pray also that the people of Alcoy will be won to the Lord through the ministry of this camp. Pray the love of Christ will shine brightly in the darkness here.

JIM & DAWN ANDERSON: (Guinea)

Pray that God would send a person willing to be the Yalunka team's Business Administrator. This person would be of great assistance to the team doing everything from renewing visas and clearing shipments from port to buying the powdered sugar that appeared in the grocery store for the first time in months.

PAM FULTON: (Italy) Service Project is 10 days away! Pam is really looking forward to this trip, but they are meeting some spiritual opposition. God has an enemy and sometimes he "picks on" God's kids. Pam and her team want to stand strong and be a light to their community as well as the Romanians. Courtney and Zach Foughty, Pam's niece and nephew are coming to help with Service Project. After losing their brother in a car accident and then Courtney having surgery last Friday, they are trusting God for His timing in all of this.
