Welcome

We are glad you are here to share this morning with us! We all know what it's like to start strong but fizzle out down the road. We're up on minute and down the next. We have good intentions, but somehow end up blowing it. How can God put up with that? This morning we celebrate the God that is Bigger than our inconsistency. He is faithful, even when we are unfaithful.

Find out about how you can get involved at Fellowship. Stop by Connection Central. We're here to serve you.

Baptism classes – July 17, 9:45 AM & July 24, 11:30 AM

If you have not been baptized since coming to Christ, consider taking this important step in your discipleship by being baptized at our Church Picnic at Stillwater Retreat on August 7. Attend one of the informational classes held in Room 206 to begin the process.

FMC Group Ride – July 17, 1 PM

Whether you're a seasoned bicyclist or you're new to the sport, come on out and join us for our monthly ride. We have two options - a leisurely ride along the River Greenway or a more intense 25-mile road trip. We'll leave from the FMC parking lot. RSVP to Jeff Shatto at jshatto1@msn.com.

Race for Congo – August 1-8

World Relief's Race For Congo is a bicycle race across the country and against the clock to help end the urgent crisis in the DR Congo. With conflict tearing families apart, insecurity threatening the innocence of women and hunger stunting the growth of a generation, the people in Congo are praying for peace to come now. Joining them in their cry, eight Race for Congo riders, including our own Joe Johns, Andrew Hoffman and Jeff Shatto, will pedal in relay twenty-four hours a day, crossing 2,776 miles in 7 days, enduring grueling hours and pain-filled nights to raise the team goal of $43,000. You can help by sponsoring a mile, or ten miles, or a thousand miles. Every dollar you give will be matched by a generous donor, instantly increasing opportunities to build peace in Congo. To learn more and to become a sponsor, go to www.worldrelief.org/raceforcongo.
