Missional Prayer

Would you be interested in learning more about one of our missionaries? Stop at the International Ministries display and pick up a newsletter!

PAM FULTON: (Italy) God is on the move in Aviano and the momentum is obvious. But there is an enemy, God's enemy, who will not let us walk in and take what belongs to God without a fight. Please pray for many students who need to know Jesus in a personal way. Our prayers are breaking down strongholds. Keep up the good work!

MATT & JOY SELL: (Spain) Italy's primer minister just resigned. Spain's prime minister decided not to run for another term and called for early general elections that will be today. Please PRAY that feelings of instability would lead people to find hope and stability in Christ. Please PRAY that politicians who would be most open to the gospel and its advance would win elections.

GRUB & GO GUYS: (Local) A group of our men, some retired, meet twice each week for breakfast then go out into the community to serve. They want to show the love of Jesus in concrete ways. Pray others will see Christ in them. For more information, visit the Missional Living booth or talk to Arlie Hatch.

Are you engaging missionally and want prayer? Have questions about our missionaries or want to get in touch with them? Please email Joe Johns at jjohns@fmcfw.org.
