Missional Prayer

DR CONGO: Please pray fervently today as tomorrow (actually tonight our time) the election takes place in the Democratic Republic of Congo. Ask God to bring into power the man he wants for this war-torn nation. Pray for peace no matter the results of the election and that the new president will want what is best for the country and its people.

TOMMY & KONNI LOGAN: (Papua New Guinea) Tommy unexpectedly lost his brother last week and flew home to mourn with family in the States. Ask God to comfort the Logan family at this time and to provide funding for the flight.

NANA & SITA COUFFIE: (Austria) The Catholic Church in Guntramsdorf has approached Nana about a cooperative effort which will involve the Catholic parishioners joining the FCR weekly prayer meetings, as well as Nana preaching occasionally at the Catholic church. Pray this will lead people to a personal relationship with Jesus Christ and that they become disciples who make disciples.

MIKE & CAROL BISHOP: (Ecuador) 20 people have applied to serve as short-term interns/volunteers with Extreme Response. Many of these had their first missions experience on work teams/mission's trips. Pray for God's direction in their lives, and for Mike as he helps them through the application process, places them with ministries, and supervises them during their time on the field.

Are you engaging missionally and want prayer? Have questions about our missionaries or want to get in touch with them? Please email Joe Johns at jjohns@fincfw.org.
