

FELLOWSHIP COMMUNITIES

Do you come to church to hear about the promise of the rich and robust life of following Jesus, but find that an hour on Sunday is just not enough to help you actually live it out? Then...

STEP OUT OF YOUR SUNDAY MORNING ROW ...
AND TAKE A FIRST STEP INTO COMMUNITY!

Engaging in a community where belonging can be found and following Jesus is modeled and encouraged is often the missing piece in most people's discipleship. Following Jesus was never meant to be a solo endeavor. It was always meant to be done with others.

Fellowship Communities are a great first step beyond Sunday morning attendance to help you move forward in your journey toward greater discipleship and mission. These small to medium sized groups meet in homes throughout the week for a shared meal, shared worship, shared burdens and shared mission.

Sign up today for a Fellowship Community and step into the pathway toward a more Jesus-shaped life!

FELLOWSHIP COMMUNITIES

WHAT is a Fellowship Community?

A Fellowship Community is a small (10-15 people) to medium-sized (20-30 people) gathering where individuals can experience care and belonging in a setting outside of the Sunday morning service. These communities meet in homes throughout the week, with each gathering including opportunities to grow in our relationship to the Lord, to one another and to the hurting world.

WHO are Fellowship Communities for?

Anyone! If you are ready to take that first step beyond Sunday morning attendance, or you are looking to connect to others in the Fellowship family, Fellowship Communities are a great place to start!

WHEN do Fellowship Communities meet?

Fellowship Communities meet 2-3 times a month in homes around the city between October 2017 and April 2018. New Fellowship Communities may be starting in January 2018. At the end of this period, groups will have the opportunity to choose to continue meeting, multiply, move to a deeper level of discipleship or bring things to a close.

HOW do I join a Fellowship Community?

1. Sign up beginning October 8 in Room 108 after both morning services. Leader will be on hand to meet you and answer questions.
2. Sign up online at www.fmcfw.org/#communities.
3. Contact Pastor Kelly Fair at kfair@fmcfw.org for more info.
